Legendary Boothbay Region High School varsity boys' coach I.J. Pinkham is back for another year of his now-famous "hoop camp" at the YMCA. Fundamental skills are emphasized through skill drills, game situations and fun contests. Work hard each day and you might be up for the Camper of the Day Award. Or maybe you win that day's knockout game, or perhaps tower above the rest at the free throw line. Campers will swim daily so be sure to pack a towel and bathing suit along with a lunch.

Girl's Lacrosse Camp

Aug 9-13, 9 am-3pm

Grades 4-8 (Girls)

Members: $150

Non Member: $300

Lacrosse is one of the nation's fastest growing team sports. Maine youth lacrosse has exploded over the past decade. It's a very exciting time to become involved in youth lacrosse! An exhilarating fast-paced game, lacrosse combines many of the skills kids have learned in other sports such as hockey, soccer and basketball. At the Boothbay Region YMCA we strive to create a fun camp atmosphere where players can master lacrosse skills through YMCA tenets of caring, honesty, responsibility and respect. Swimming is part of the camp program daily. Players need to provide their own sticks.

Cheerleading Camp

Aug. 16-20, 9am-3pm

Grades 4-8 (Girls)

Members: $150,

Non-Member: $250

"Give me a Y, Give me a M..." What's that spell?! Join Boothbay Region High School and Middle School Cheering coaches for an action packed week of pyramids and stunts! Campers will swim daily, so be sure to pack a swim suit, towel and lunch.

Tennis Camp

August 23-27, 9 am-12pm

Grades 4-8

Member: $75

Non-Member: $150

Coach Alex Arsenault, who played collegiate tennis Nichols College in Massachusetts and is now a Profession Tennis Registry certified pro at the Boothbay Region YMCA, will lead campers in stroke development and game strategy as they participate in drills and games designed for fun. The camp is intended for players of all skill levels with minimum requirements of a basic understanding of tennis rules and strokes. Campers must provide their own racquets.

Camp Financial Assistance

The Boothbay Region YMCA offers financial support for families who qualify thru our Camp Scholarship Fund Drive! These scholarships are awarded on a first come, first serve basis.

Please contact the YMCA Business Office at 633-2855 if you need a scholarship OR if you'd like to help send a child to camp!
