Y- Arts:

Kiddie Choir Volunteer: Attends Weekly Program, Helps Encourage Youth Participation, Participates in Musical Activities along with Kids, Supervises bathroom/water breaks and Youth needing to take breaks from current activities

Arts for All Volunteer: Attends Monthly Workshop, Encourages Participants, Performs alongside Participants in Bi-Annual Performances

If interested please contact Emily Mirabile at emirabile@brymca.org

Youth & Teen Center:

Leaders Club: The Leader's Club works together to better ourselves and the community through volunteer service, community building and leadership.

Throughout the year, teens will gain experience and knowledge through a variety of activities and events that will help them grow and thrive. Wednesdays from 3-3:45, the group will help with Kiddie Choir in the Annex. On Thursday the Leader's Club participates in a "Buddy Program" with the Child Enrichment Center interacting with the children. Leaders Club meets once a week on Wednesday's right after school at the YMCA.

Contact Logahn Walker at lwalker@brymca.org if interested.

Child Enrichment Center:

Volunteers are always welcome to read to the 3 and 4 year olds before lunch, or to hold and read to children in the infant room. During the fall and spring, we spend mid-mornings and mid to late afternoons on our playground and the children love to have visitors during that time.

Contact Amy Henderson at ahenderson@brymca.org if interested.

Membership:

The Front Desk Helper assists the front desk employee but their primary focus is answering the main phone line and directs calls · Greets guests and directs them to their area of interest · Answers questions about the Y · Helps prepare bulk mailings · Other duties as assigned.

Contact Lisa McIntosh at lmcintosh@brymca.org if interested.

Facilities:

In Facilities, there are opportunities to volunteer in gardening and landscaping. Master gardeners have multiple opportunities to get their volunteers hours in here at the YMCA each year.

Contact Rose Mooney at rmooney@brymca.org if interested.

Special Events:

Fill the Bus: Twice a year, once in the fall and once in the spring we host a Fill the Bus at Hannaford to get donated nonperishable food items to help restock the Boothbay Region Food Pantry. Contact Logahn Walker at lwalker@brymca.org if interested.

Tree of Giving: Once a year we accept applications for families in need for the holiday season. Volunteers can help cut the ornaments out at our mitten cutting party, they can choose to take a tag off the tree and purchase that gift and return it and they can help sort out all the gifts towards the end of the event. Contact Logahn Walker at lwalker@brymca.org if interested.

Annual Celebration: This event is where staff and volunteers are recognized for their dedicated service to the Y and the community. Volunteering for this event includes setting up the tables & chairs the morning on the event. Contact Logahn Walker at lwalker@brymca.org if interested.

Rocky Coast Road Race: Volunteering for the 5k/10K run walk we encourage volunteers to work at the start/finish line, course workers, packet stuffers, and refreshment distributor. No job is too small! Contact Lisa McIntosh at lmcintosh@brymca.org if interested.

Sports:

The Boothbay Region YMCA is looking for volunteer coaches to help teach youth the fundamentals of soccer, basketball, and lacrosse. Program dates range as well do the ages of the participants. Other opportunities for volunteers would be to help run the March Madness Basketball Tournaments. Contact Joe Clark at jclark@clcymca.org if interested.

Aquatics:
